DANCE FEVER MultiSport

HOSTED BY THE MAY DAY COMMITTEE

IN CONJUNCTION WITH DANCE FEVER MULTI SPORT

The May Day Committee invite all children of all ages to participate in a "Dance Fever" Workshop

Come and join Rachel Minton for an exciting adventure. Workshops will be held at the Ken Wilson Pavilion each afternoon from Thursday 3rd May through to a final performance on Monday 7th May. This performance will be conducted on stage after the conclusion of the procession and awards at the Barcaldine Showground.

Rachel is a 21 who has been dancing since she was 9 years old in jazz, hip hop, ballet and contemporary/lyrical. She has competed in "The World Supremacy Battlegrounds" Competition in which the group came 1st for NSW and 3rd in Australia – quite an achievement!

In the workshops Rachel will be focusing on hip hop tricks, a full routine and intricate movements.

"I absolutely love the way dancing makes you feel and what it releases. I can't wait to come on this journey in Barcaldine and look forward to seeing you all!" – Rach
